

NO 2-CENT FARE LAW

Stipulation Between State and Railroads Ends With Dismissal of Nebraska Suits.

MAY ALLOW RATES TO STAND

Railroad Attorneys Believe Present Arrangements Will Be Continued As Matter of Policy.

The reported dismissal of the 2-cent fare litigation in the Federal court in Nebraska, which means that Nebraska will retain its present 2-cent passenger rate, probably means that 2-cent fares will remain effective in Kansas according to unofficial statements in railway circles.

Legally, when the Nebraska cases are terminated the stipulation entered into by thirteen railroads and the state of Kansas before Judge John C. Follock of the Federal court, by which agreement 2-cent fares were to remain in force in Kansas until the Nebraska litigation was settled, will be ended, it is said, and the rate proposition will be just where it was when the agreement was made, seven years ago.

One railroad attorney said that as far as he knew the present arrangement would be allowed to stand, although he had no word from the central office to that effect. And he declined to be quoted. Another added that if the lower fare was retained by the roads it would be as a matter of policy on the part of the roads. The roads are expected to get together on the proposition soon.

Nebraska has a 2-cent fare law. Kansas has not. But when Nebraska brought suit in that state courts to make its law effective, the railroads carried the suit into the Federal court, making the state take the defensive. Pending a decision, Nebraska has enjoyed 2-cent fares.

About the same time, seven years ago, John Dawson, then attorney for the board of railroad commissioners of the state of Kansas entered into a stipulation with thirteen roads operating in Kansas whereby it was agreed 2-cent rates should be effective in Kansas until a decision was given in the Nebraska cases. The railroad commission issued an emergency order to that effect.

TOWN MAY RUN MOVIE SHOW

Municipal Theatre Among Plans of Mulberry's Mayor for Improvement; Expenses Small.

If a plan of J. N. Marion, mayor of Mulberry, is worked out Mulberry will have a municipal motion picture show. Mulberry recently built a water and light plant. Mayor Marion's plans call for use of power from the city's plant for a moving picture machine. He has an offer of the rental of a machine. He intends to have the superintendent of the water and light system operate the machine. The only expense to the city for the picture theater will be a room which the city will have to rent and the films. Mayor Marion will charge a small admission fee and furnish a show every night.

Want Mosquitoes Killed.—Despite the fact that snow and ice covers all the creeks and ponds about Parsons, members of a local civic organization appealed to Mayor Leinbach urging that the city commission begin a "swat the mosquito" campaign immediately. Winter, one of them said, is the time to do the swatting, as it is useless to attempt to exterminate the mosquitoes in the summer when the creeks and ponds are full of them.

WELLINGTON MAYOR OUSTED

Permanent Order Issued by Judge Swartz in Circuit Court Removing Belsley From Office.

A permanent order of ouster has been issued against Mayor Belsley of Wellington by Judge Swartz of the District court. The judge sustained the motion for temporary ouster on the charge of attempted bribery, and then, on motion of the state to take up the main case, he issued a permanent order of ouster. The charge was in connection with a proposition to build a $140,000 water plant there.

Has Sunday Trains.—For the first time in the last six weeks the people of Baldwin recently enjoyed the privilege of reading the Kansas City Sunday papers. When the Santa Fe began running motor cars instead of regular trains over the Lawrence-Ottawa branch on Sundays, it was found that the mail and express business was too heavy and mail traffic was discontinued on Sundays. This worked a great inconvenience on the Baldwin people and they made complaint that resulted in the change.

STATE NORMAL 49 YEARS OLD

Emporia School Devotes Day to Celebration of Anniversary—First President Attends.

The forty-ninth anniversary of the school was celebrated the other day. President Thomas W. Butcher, who was recently installed formally, presided. Judge Lyman B. Kellogg, the school's first president, read the preamble of the sower, the Scripture reading with which he opened the school in 1865, from the same Bible he used on that occasion.

Judge Kellogg outlined the growth of the school, from its small beginning, with the development of the state. He told of the school's fine opportunities in faculty, buildings and equipment, and said it was prepared to do its work in the best possible manner.

Governor Hodges made a short talk in which he lauded the Normal. E. W. Hoch urged the public to enlarge and improve the schools, denominational and private schools as well as state institutions.

A school pageant, a symbolic representation of the calling of the teacher in pantomime, dance, reading and song, was given at the gymnasium. Miss Minnie Porter was in charge of the event. The prologue and epilogue were written by Amos Rundus.

DOGS JOIN PACK OF COYOTES

Two Strays Discovered by Saline County Farmers Running With Wolves—Elude Capture.

For some time the farmers in this county have been excited over the existence of a couple of black wolves in the neighborhood, which ran continually with the coyotes. Two or three roundups have been held especially to capture the black wolves, which are said to be much more vicious than the common coyote and therefore more daring in robbing the hen roosts. The other afternoon farmers riding through the country saw the black animals and succeeded in getting close enough to discover that they were common black dogs that have taken up with the coyotes. Where the dogs came from is not known, but they are strays that have been in the county several months. There have been several instances in Central Kansas where dogs have joined wolf droves and some farmers have dogs that are part wolf. This, however, is the first time that distinctly black dogs have associated with coyotes.

KANSASSORGHUM SEED GOOD

Farmers Need Have No Fear in Planting Foreign Crops This Year, Says College Expert.

Kansas's 1913 sorghum seed is all right for planting. Milo, Kafir and feterita seed is as good for planting as the usual crop, although cane will not come up to the normal. All the farmers will have to do to get a good seedling will be to plant from 10 to 20 per cent more. These facts were given out by William M. Jardine, dean of agriculture at the Kansas State Agricultural college. They were based upon tests that have been made by the Kansas State Experiment Station.

Active at 97.—Philetas Beverly, 97 years old, kept open house the other day in honor of his birthday anniversary and received many callers at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. B. Smith, in Ottawa. Notwithstanding his years, Mr. Beverly spaded the garden in the recent warm spell.

Beardsley of Russell, Kas., was killed at Lawrence when the bob-sled he was guiding down the steep incline on Adams street struck a cab at the intersection of Tennessee street. Beardsley crashed into the front wheel of the cab and was dead when picked up in the snow by other members of the coasting party. He was a senior in the college.

U. S. TROOPS CATCH CASTILLO

Mexican Bandit Arrested On American Soil.

El Paso, Tex.—Maximo Castillo, the Mexican bandit, charged with responsibility for the Cumbre Tunnel disaster, in which ten Americans and forty-one others lost their lives, has been captured thirty-eight miles south of Hachita, N. M., by American troops. This information was conveyed to Gen. Hugh L. Scott, commandant at Fort Bliss, in an official telegram from Captain White, Ninth United States Cavalry.

With the bandit were six of his followers. According to Captain White's brief dispatch, they surrendered without a fight. They will be brought here.

Captain White telegraphed by army wireless to General Scott for instructions and was ordered to arrest the bandit should he put foot on American soil. Whether the prisoner shall be surrendered to the rebels is a legal question that remains to be settled. If this is done there is no doubt he will be put to death for the Cumbre disaster. He is not charged with any crime on this side.

TWELVE HURT IN KATYWRECK

Limited Train From St. Louis Plows Through Stock Cars at Parsons, Kansas.

Parsons, Kas.—Ollie Thomas, engineer, and W. W. Ross, the fireman, were probably fatally injured and eight passengers and two mail clerks, Harry Garrison and C. K. Parsons, severely injured when the "Katy" Limited from St. Louis, plowed through four stock cars standing on the main line in the Parsons yards.

The limited was thirty minutes late and running sixty miles an hour when it struck the stock cars. The locomotive plowed the cars and struck an open switch before it turned over, taking with it the mail car, combination coach and baggage car. The chair car, diner and two rear Pullmans remained upright on the bridge. The injured passengers were removed to hospitals here.

CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

Cold Cured by Cold.

"Without having gone anywhere near either pole," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle, "I have had my experience of the fact that intense cold outside stops the cold in the head. We were six men, essaying the ascent of the Grand Combin, in the Alps (over 14,000 feet). From our first attempt we were driven back by a thunderstorm and a stay of some hours to dry in the hut with the stove going woke up all the microbes. When we returned to the hut next day from the valley there were at least four severe colds among us, with sneezing and sore throats. On the third morning we traversed our peak, slowly cutting snow and ice steps in weather memorably bitter even for that height. On the other side it suddenly occurred to me that I had no 'cold' left and the others made the same discovery.

ECZEMA SPREAD OVER BODY

Roxbury, Ohio.—"When my little boy was two weeks old he began breaking out on his cheeks. The eczema began just with pimples and they seemed to itch so badly he would scratch his face and cause a matter to run. Wherever that matter would touch it would cause another pimple until it spread all over his body. It caused disfigurement while it lasted. He had fifteen places on one arm and his head had several. The deepest places on his cheeks were as large as a silver dollar on each side. He was so restless at night we had to put mittens on him to keep him from scratching them with his finger nails. If he got a little too warm at night it seemed to hurt badly.

"We tried a treatment and he didn't get any better. He had the eczema about three weeks when we began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed him at night with the Cuticura Soap and spread the Cuticura Ointment on and the eczema left." (Signed) Mrs. John White, Mar. 19, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

Mr. R. M. Flenor, R. F. D. 29, Otterbein, Ind., writes: "I had been a sufferer from Kidney Trouble for about 25 years. I finally got so bad that I had to quit work, and doctors failed to do me any good. I kept getting worse all the time, and it at last turned to inflammation of the bladder, and I had given up all hope, when one day I received your little booklet advertising your pills, and resolved to try them. I did, and took only two boxes, and I am now sound and well. I regard my cure as remarkable. I can recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to any one who is suffering from Kidney Trouble as I was." ## HIS PROMISE TO DO BETTER

Hard to See How Hodcarrier Could Live Up to It, Considering the Circumstances.

The late George A. Hearn, the millionaire business man and art collector of New York, was noted for his kind and reasonable treatment of his employees. Mr. Hearn used to smile at the new scientific management craze, of which he once said at a dinner:

"These scientific management people, with their impossible claims of doubling and tripling a man's labor, remind me of the humble hodcarrier's impossible promise.

"A facetious boss said to a new hodcarrier:

"Look-a-here, friend, didn't I hire you to carry bricks up that ladder by the day?"

"Yes, sir," said the hodcarrier, touching his cap.

"Well, I've had my eye on you, and you've only done it half a day today. You spent the other half coming down the ladder."

"The hodcarrier touched his cap again.

"I'll try to do better tomorrow, sir," he said, humbly."
